8. School's Legacy and History

- What is the school's history, and why is this celebration important?
 - RGHS is the oldest girls' school in the country which was founded by early settlers in Stellenbosch. The school opened on 1 May 1860 hosting 8 girls in its first year. The school has blossomed over the years, forever diversifying to improve how it services the community of Stellenbosch by providing outstanding education, exceptional sport and cultural opportunities. We need to celebrate the importance of this government run school that is going above and beyond with so many contributions from parents and community members that help make this school great. We need to celebrate the distance this school has gone since 1860 and proud of its future.
- Are there any notable alumni or special guests expected at the event?
 - We will keep you updated as the celebrations continue on our social media and other communication channels
- Will a commemorative programme or publication highlight the school's achievement?
 - The RGHS newsletter will have a special edition that will be sent out during the month of May as well as news will be shared with our local newspaper, EikestadNuus, to keep the community informed on the newsworthy information, activities and other developments taking place throughout the year.
